Chapter 1 by m00o0o0ooo0o0o00oo0o0o0o0o0o0o0o00oo0o0o0o0o0o0n

I push Will away and begin to sob, just before he pulls the trigger.....

Chapter 2 by benjiswagqwertyuiopasdfghjklzxcvbnm

Will is sitting on the grass looking confused and upset and Henry is no-where to be seen. Then out of the darkness a figure appears and Wills beautiful green eyes light up. It was Sir John Monash himself. Will gets to his feet and salutes. Sir John Monash himself then tells William Stamporino that he he has been expelled from JMSS because his trusty pocket chemistry set was not to John Monash standard.

Wills screams and screams and screams. Then I hear a loud gunshot and William is lying on the floor dead. He shot himself :(

Now I am by my self in the grassy field next to the abandoned house with the closest person about a thousand kilometres away; or so I thought. I had forgotten about Henry De Bono.

Chapter 3 by benjiswagqwertyuiopasdfghjklzxcvbnm

I fall to the ground all alone. I have no idea where I am and I have no idea how to get back home.

Just as I am about to get back to my feet a large figure forces me back onto the ground. It was Henry. Just as he is about to fill my but with love, Josh Teuabyte flies out to nowhere. He yells "get back will in". He punches Henry. Henry lands in the dirt. Josh Teuabyte flies at Henry again but Henry catches him. Josh Teuabyte flies straight into Henry's mouth. Now Henry is happy. He is about to fight with Henry De Bono.

Chapter 4 by Lore

I beg on my knees for Henry not to eat me but he just grunts and says 'im hungry'. Henry grabs me with one hand and I close my eyes preparing to die, i already hear Henry's stomach digest Josh. Henry puts me in his mouth and just as he is about to close it, a wild ms spaz starts shooting her moustache hair in Henry's nose . Henry then sneezes and i fly out staright on ms spaz's magic moustache flying carpet. We fly away but then Henry grabs ms spaz and eats her too.

Chapter 5 by benjiswagqwertyuiopasdfghjklzxcvbnm

I try to fly away from Henry De on on Ms Spaz's magical flying carpet but Henry shoots snot missiles at me. Wherever they touch the magic carpet they melt giant holes in it. Just as I thought I was doomed a magical opening in the clouds appeared in the sky and a giant Mr Golding fell through. He fell like a giant meteor; right onto Henry De Bono's head. There was a massive explosion and I was blasted back. All I could see was dust and bits of Mr. G fat flying everywhere. Where Henry used to be was a massive crater. I thought it was all over. I thought Mr Golding had saved the day but then I heard an almighty roar. The monster was still alive.

Chapter 6 by m00o0o0ooo0o0o00oo0o0o0o0o0o0o0o00oo0o0o0o0o0o0n

He came at with me in a rage like I've never seen before. Not even the 7 years olds on Club Penguin using maccas wifi are this mad. I was so scared that the monster would come and rip me to pieces, and he was getting closer and closer with every step. Luckily, just in the nick of time DJ Blitz appears over the horizon with his sick DJ set and distracts the HDB. He started dancing and that was the moment I realised it was my time to strike.

Chapter 7 by benjiswagqwertyuiopasdfghjklzxcvbnm

I try to lunge at him but I cant move. I am hypnotised by DJ Blitz's vibes. I am dancing uncontrollably. I grab Henry De Bono by the waist and we start to dance. It is so romantic. I forget why I hate Henry so much and we kiss. But then DJ Blitz's sick DJ set stops working and

"Ah, that was just a 3 dimensional, John Monash Standard hologram that I was testing," says William. "I programmed it using python. I also made this fancy John Monash Standard, fusion powered Willi-copter."

William swoops down and I grab his hand. He pulls me onto his John Monash standar, fusion powered Willi-copter and we fly off. I look back and Henry is shaking his massive fist at us. I knew this was not over.

Chapter 8 by Dingo

As we soar through the dark blue sky William takes me through all of the special features of his Willi-copter. I am fascinated at how much one can achieve by attending JMSS. He puts the Willi-copter on Auto-pilot and lies down in his adjustable seat. I immediately lie down as well, after all, whatever William Stamporino does is the best and smartest thing to do.

I look over to his beautiful messy eyebrows and follow through to his sparkling eyes. I follow his gaze and find myself looking at a sky full of little lights. "Wha-what are they?" I ask bewildered. "We call them stars at JMSS," says William in a matter-of-fact sort of way. I am mesmerized by his vocabulary and by the amount of knowledge in him. "That one is HomeoStudissimo", he says as he points to one of the constellations. "And that one is-" I don't know what it was! I don't know where it came from! All I know is that it interrupted William and that was enough! I sit back up as quickly as I can but naturally William is faster. I look around and see luscious hair floating outside my window. HENRY! I reach for the controls but William has already taken over. He manoeuvres the Willi-copter majestically and dodges all of Henry's snotty highlighters. William tells me to hit the big red button but I don't have the required experience. Henry is getting closer and closer. This is the end. I close my eyes and count to ten but as I get to 8 I feel William's hand on top of mine and we press the big red button together. The Willi-copter zooms forward for 2 seconds, then, it violently stops. I look at William, the shock is there. "No more fusion..." he says. A Jacob flies past us laughing maliciously. Suddenly Mr Eibert comes out from behind a crashed highlighter, his eyelids sagging more than ever. Shortly after his unexpected appearance, his army of Gyro sensed robots materialize out of nowhere. He yells at William and I to 'come aboard' but William refuses to abandon his Willi-copter. I beg him to come but he just won't budge. Henry Dickson's approach is jump and land on top of the robot's head, a crunch overhead and see Henry
